1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act and Protection of Personal Information Act

- 1.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the “Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.2. The Protection of Personal Information Act, No 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”) was enacted in order to promote the protection of personal information being processed by public and private bodies and to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information
- 1.3. In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”), this manual seeks to comply with the requirements thereof as well as the requirements set out in the POPIA.
- 1.4. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, if the information is required for the protection of a right, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements and the grounds of refusal as provided for in the Act.

2. Salestalk 567 (Pty) Ltd t/a Benoni Veterinary Hospital

- 2.1. The entity is duly registered as Salestalk 567 (Pty) Ltd but is trading as and will be herein and in all corresponding PAIA; POPIA and / or FICA documents referred to as Benoni Veterinary Hospital.
- 2.2. Benoni Veterinary Hospital is a veterinary practice established in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SAVC, with practice number: Fh097/0006.
- 2.3. This Manual of Benoni Veterinary Hospital is available at its premises: 2 Main Road, Farrarmere, Benoni, as well as on its website, <https://www.benonivet.co.za/>.

3. Purpose of the Manual

- 3.1. The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster the culture of transparency and accountability within Benoni Veterinary Hospital by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2. In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.3. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- 3.3.1. Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- 3.3.2. Commercial confidentiality; and
- 3.3.3. Effective, efficient and good governance; and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

- 3.4. POPIA requires the Benoni Veterinary Hospital group of companies to inform their clients as to the manner in which their personal information is collected, used, stored, disclosed and subsequently destroyed.
- 3.5. Benoni Veterinary Hospital guarantees its commitment to protecting its client's privacy and ensuring that their personal information is used appropriately, transparently, securely and in accordance with applicable laws.
- 3.6. The policy sets out the manner in which Benoni Veterinary Hospital deals with their client's personal information and stipulates the purpose for which the said information is used. This policy is made available on the Benoni Veterinary Hospital Website and upon request from the Benoni Veterinary Hospital Legal & Compliance Department.
- 3.7. This Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulations by private and public bodies.

5. The Information Officer [Section 51(1)(b)]

- 5.1. The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for public bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess requests for access to information. The head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51. Benoni Veterinary Hospital has opted to appoint an Information Officer to assess such a request for access to information as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of the Act.
- 5.2. The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the POPIA. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required in terms of both the Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the POPIA after registering with the Information Regulator.

- 5.3. The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. This is in order to render Benoni Veterinary Hospital as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the POPIA.
- 5.4. All request for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.

If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.

- 10.2. It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this Manual.

11. Detail to Facilitate a Request for Access to a Record of Benoni Veterinary Hospital [Section 51(1) (e)]

- 11.1. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.
- 11.2. The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address as noted in herein above.

- 11.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - 11.3.1. the record or records requested; and
 - 11.3.2. the identity of the requester.
- 11.4. The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address or email address of the requester in the Republic;
- 11.5. The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).
- 11.6. Benoni Veterinary Hospital will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 11.7. The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 11.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).
- 11.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 11.10. The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.
- 11.11. All information as listed in clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12. Refusal of Access to Records

- 12.1. A private body such as Benoni Veterinary Hospital is entitled to refuse a request for information.
- 12.2. The main grounds for Benoni Veterinary Hospital to refuse a request for information relates to the:
 - 12.2.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the - unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;

- 12.2.2. Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
 - 12.2.3. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
 - 12.2.3.1. trade secrets of the third party;
 - 12.2.3.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - 12.2.3.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Benoni Veterinary Hospital, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.2.4. Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - 12.2.4.1. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
 - 12.2.4.2. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
 - 12.2.5. The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as Benoni Veterinary Hospital, which may include:
 - 12.2.5.1. trade secrets of Benoni Veterinary Hospital;
 - 12.2.5.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Benoni Veterinary Hospital;
 - 12.2.5.3. information which, if disclosed could put Benoni Veterinary Hospital at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.2.5.4. a computer program which is owned by Benoni Veterinary Hospital, and which is protected by copyright;
 - 12.2.5.5. the research information (section 69) of Benoni Veterinary Hospital or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Benoni Veterinary Hospital, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
 - 12.2.6. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
 - 12.2.7. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
 - 12.2.8. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13. Remedies Available When Benoni Veterinary Hospital Refuses a Request

13.1. Internal Remedies

13.1.1. Benoni Veterinary Hospital does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2. External Remedies

13.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief.

13.2.2. A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

13.3. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14. Access to Records Held by Benoni Veterinary Hospital

14.1. Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester

14.1.1. Records held by Benoni Veterinary Hospital may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

14.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Benoni Veterinary Hospital. There are two types of requesters:

14.1.2.1. Personal Requester

14.1.2.1.1. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

14.1.2.1.2. Benoni Veterinary Hospital will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

14.1.2.2. Other Requester

14.1.2.2.1. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.

14.1.2.2.2. In considering such a request, Benoni Veterinary Hospital will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.

- 14.1.3. Benoni Veterinary Hospital is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. Prescribed Fees [Section 51 (1) (f)]

15.1. Fees Provided by the Act

- 15.1.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:
 - 15.1.1.1. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
 - 15.1.1.2. An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.
- 15.1.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).
- 15.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 15.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 15.1.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 15.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

16. Reproduction Fee

- 16.1. Where Benoni Veterinary Hospital has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

Reproduction of Information Fees	Fees to be Charged

A transcription of an audio record for an A4-size page or part thereof	R 20,00
A copy of an audio record	R 30,00

16.2. Request Fees

- 16.2.1. Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50,00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

16.3. Access Fees

- 16.3.1. An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8). The applicable access fees which will be payable are:

Part 4 – Cross border transfers of Personal Information

Personal Information may be transmitted transborder where necessary and Personal Information may be stored in data servers hosted outside South Africa, which may not have adequate data protection laws. Benoni Veterinary Hospital will endeavour to ensure that its data controllers, dealers and suppliers will make all reasonable efforts to secure said data and Personal Information.

Part 5 – Description of information security measures

Benoni Veterinary Hospital undertakes to institute and maintain the data protection measures to accomplish the following objectives outlined below. The details given are to be interpreted as examples of how to achieve an adequate data protection level for each objective. Benoni Veterinary Hospital may use alternative measures and adapt to technological security development, as needed, provided that the objectives are achieved.

1. Access Control of Persons

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall implement suitable measures in order to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to the data processing equipment where the data is processed.

All employees and sub-contractors are required to sign POPIA Confidentiality Mandates.

2. Data Media Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital undertakes to implement suitable measures to prevent the unauthorized manipulation of media, including reading, copying, alteration or removal of the data media used by Benoni Veterinary Hospital and containing personal data of Customers.

3. Data Memory Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital undertakes to implement suitable measures to prevent unauthorized input into data memory and the unauthorised reading, alteration or deletion of stored data.

4. User Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall implement suitable measures to prevent its data processing systems from being used by unauthorised persons by means of data transmission equipment.

5. Access Control to Data

Benoni Veterinary Hospital represents that the persons entitled to use Benoni Veterinary Hospital's data processing system are only able to access the data within the scope and to the extent covered by their respective access permissions (authorisation).

6. Transmission Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall be obliged to enable the verification and tracing of the locations / destinations to which the personal information is transferred by utilization of Benoni Veterinary Hospital's data communication equipment / devices in so far as existing infrastructure provides therefore.

7. Transport Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall implement suitable measures to prevent Personal Information from being read, copied, altered or deleted by unauthorized persons during the transmission thereof or during the transport of the data media.

8. Organisation Control

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall maintain its internal organisation in a manner that meets the requirements of this Manual.

9. Training on Policy / Manual

Benoni Veterinary Hospital shall provide training on this policy and the POPIA will be implemented and put in place for all staff contractors and/or any other interested or relevant parties.

Every employee in the Benoni Veterinary Hospital group will be required to sign an addendum to their employment contracts containing relevant consent clauses for the use and storage of employee information, or any other action so required, in terms of the POPIA.

Every employee currently employed within the Benoni Veterinary Hospital group will be required to sign an addendum to their employment contracts containing the relevant clauses for the use, storage and protection of any relevant data subject's personal information including, but not limited to, suppliers, clients and third parties.

10. Storage of Documents

Hard Copies

Hard copies are stored on secure archiving premises with limited authorised access to authorised personnel only.

All hard copies are kept for 7 years in accordance with the provisions of legislation.

Electronic Storage

The internal procedure requires that electronic storage of information is overseen by management who arrange for the secure storage, indexing and retrieval thereof.

Scanned documents: If documents are scanned, the hard copy must be retained for as long as the information is used or for 1 year after the date of scanning, with the exception of documents pertaining to personnel. Any document containing information on the written particulars of an employee, including: employee's name and occupation, time worked by each employee, remuneration and date of birth of an employee under the age of 18 years; must be retained for a period of 3 years after termination of employment.

Section 51 of the Electronic Communications Act No 25 of 2005 requires that personal information and the purpose for which the data was collected must be kept by the person who electronically requests, collects, collates, processes or stores the information and a record of any third party to whom the information was disclosed must be retained for a period of 1 year or for as long as the information is used.

It is also required that all personal information which has become obsolete must be destroyed.

11. Destruction of Documents

Documents may be destroyed after the termination of the retention period specified in accordance with legislation. Registration will request departments to attend to the destruction of their documents and these requests shall be attended to as soon as possible.

Each department is responsible for attending to the destruction of its documents, which must be done on a regular basis. Files must be checked in order to make sure that they may be destroyed and also to ascertain if there are important original documents in the file. Original documents must be returned to the holder thereof, failing which, they should be retained by the Company pending such return.

After completion of this process Management or the Information Officer shall, in writing, authorise the removal and destruction of the documents in the authorisation document. These records will be retained by Registration.

The documents are then made available for collection by the removers of the Company's documents, who also ensure that the documents are shredded before disposal. This also helps to ensure confidentiality of information.
